WEEK TWO

Read: “The Scrawny Little Leaguer” #Bullying

Add the “Rad-Factor!”

Bring a bag of potato chips to share with the group.

Intro: It’s hard not to stand out when society has labeled you as ugly, freakish, or uncool. Wouldn’t it be nice if avoiding bullies were as simple as blending in or disappearing? Bullying is reality and it’s a big problem. Bullies prey on the innocent leaving enduring pain and scars forever. For the victims, hurt becomes deeply rooted and will eventually escape one way or another. There has to be an intervention and it starts with you and me. Be the difference.

Scripture:

Matthew 5:7 (MSG) - “You’re blessed when you care. At the moment of being ‘care-full,’ you find yourselves cared for.”

Quote: “Courage is fire, and bullying is smoke.” – Benjamin Disraeli

Discussion Questions:

Do you know a bully?

As a Christian, how should you respond to this person?

Do you know someone who hides in the shadows? ...Who has been bullied?

What are some actions you can take to love, encourage, and lift this person's self-esteem?
